IN THE COURTS

Judge Berry Turns Arthur Brewer Over to United States Army Officers.

WARD CASE NOW ON TRIAL

Only a Few Cases in Police Court Today—Read Question in Fiscal Court Tomorrow.

NEWS OF THE MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Judge Husbands is still too ill to hold court and Special Judge W. A. Berry is again presiding in circuit court.

Mr. Henry Katterjohn was excused from the petit jury today and Mr. Wm. Jones substituted.

In the case of John Moore, fined $100 Saturday for keeping a disorderly house, motion was made for a new trial, but not acted on.

A reply to the city's answer was filed by Porteous & Patterson in their suit against the city to collect the $7,000 balance on the brick street.

Lieut. Fleming, of the U. S. A., appeared before the court, and stated that Arthur Brewer, colored, enlisted in the army last week, and was the day he was to leave arrested for stealing a dog and selling it. He asked the court to release Brewer, promising to send him to the Philippines at once.

Upon recommendation of Commonwealth's Attorney Bradshaw, Brewer was turned over to the lieutenant, the indictment against him being filed away.

In the case of Addie Loving against Dennis Loving, a divorce was granted. A divorce was granted in the case of W. E. against Emma Davis.

Rufe Neece and Jas. Childers, charged with hog stealing, were granted a continuance until the September term.

The case against Ed Ward, for keeping a disorderly house on Washington street, is now on trial, and will probably not be finished today.

GRAND JURY INDICTMENTS. The grand jury has found the following indictments, which will be returned in the morning: Newt, alias Joe Davis, white, mule stealing; Jacob Kaufman, white, obtaining money by false pretenses from D. J. Levy; Marsh Hopson and Noah Thomas, colored, false swearing; Wm. Dalton, white, breaking into the Broadway M. E. church.

SUITS FILED. D. M. Osborn and Co. filed suit against J. B. Wiley and E. Y. Ogilvie for $164.10 on a debt.

COUNTY COURT. Judge Tully held county court today. The will of the late A. G. Budde was admitted to probate. He leaves his estate to his son and daughter, Mr. August Budde and Mrs. Mary Rodfus. Mr. Budde qualified as executor this morning.

A new road from the Paducah and Cairo gravel road to the Paducah and Hinkleville gravel road was established and the road supervisor ordered to open it.

C. K. Lamond, D. S. Holland and E. B. Wrenn were appointed commissioners to inquire into the advisability of establishing a road from the termination of the Childress road to Payne's school house.

The order made some time ago appointing to Mrs. Willie Bowles Ella Lee, an infant, was this morning set aside, the mother desiring to take her child back.

MASTER COMMISSIONER'S SALE Master Commissioner Gip Husbands this morning, in pursuance of an order of court, sold 135 acres of land in the county belonging to J. H. Burkholder, to the highest bidder. Mr. John W. Frisette, of St. Louis, was the highest bidder and purchased the property for $6,568.85. The sale was to satisfy a debt of the Farmers' Bank of Henderson, Ky.

FISCAL COURT. Fiscal court meets tomorrow in adjourned session, and probably the most important matter to come up will be the road question. The magistrates will decide whether the roads are to be heretofore, or by contract.

Settlement with Sheriff Rogers on the delinquent tax list will be made and bills against the county allowed.

MAGISTRATES' COURTS. Justice W. H. Hook's regular court is in session today, but will adjourn until after fiscal court is over.

POLICE COURT. John Adams, alias "Rabbit," colored, charged with stealing a small amount of money from a colored man named Harris, was acquitted.

Sandy Overby was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk. Joe Prentiss, for wife beating, was acquitted.

CALLED SESSION

The City Council Will Meet Tonight to Transact Special Business.

STREET SWEEPER HERE

The Elks Will File Their Petition Tonight for the Use of the Street for the Carnival.

OTHER CITY NOTES OF INTEREST

Mayor Lang has called a meeting of the council for tonight to consider several matters.

The Elks will file their petition for the use of streets during the carnival, and will no doubt get it without difficulty.

L. B. Ogilvie & Co. will petition the council for permission to lay a special system of sewerage from the cellar of their new building to the main sewer.

The matter of licenses will also come up, and any changes in the license ordinance will be made so as to become effective before May 1st, when all licenses become due.

The N. C. & St. L. will ask the council for permission to build on side track across Sixth street.

Mayor Lang said this morning that the city will get gravel from pits above the city temporarily. There is a shortage of gravel just now, owing to the bad weather.

The city's new street sweeper arrived today and was taken from the freight office. It will be used as soon as the factory's man arrives here to operate it.

Mr. Wm. Derrington, a former policeman, succeeds Mr. E. B. Johnson as assistant to Street Inspector Uterbach, and began work this morning.

Mr. Johnson was a few days ago elected county road supervisor.

SCHOOL NOTES. GRADUATES BUSY—THE ATTENDANCE IS VERY GOOD.

The members of the graduating class are busy preparing their essays and orations for commencement night. The invitation cards will be selected in the course of a week or so.

Superintendent Hatfield, in conversation with a Sun representative, stated that the average per cent of attendance for the year was about ten per cent more than last year. This he stated was indeed very encouraging.

Miss Bessie Sinclair, of the Longfellow school, teacher of the Fifth grade, has resumed her duties after one week's illness.

KICKED BY A HORSE. WALTER FISHER, A MUSICIAN, PAINFULLY HURT THIS MORNING.

Walter Fisher, while standing near a horse at Mrs. Fannie Baker's, on North Fourth and Madison streets, was kicked on the right arm early this morning and badly hurt, but no bones were broken.

He is employed there and is an experienced musician, being in one of the local bands. It is thought the injury will not disable him longer than several days.

BEAR RAID

Leading Shares Declined, Followed By Big Profit Taking, at New York.

It Is Not Believed Diplomatic Relations With China Have Been Interrupted.

New York, April 8.—The stock market was demoralized at the opening today by a bear raid. Many of the leading shares sharply declined, and after a big profit taking, there were violent recoveries, but not all losses were recouped.

Washington, April 8.—The government officials here do not credit the reports from Pekin of interruption of diplomatic relations between Russia and China.

The administration is perplexed over a cable dispatch received yesterday from Mr. Squires, now in charge of the American legation in Pekin. The dispatch, according to a publication today, said:

"The Russian minister refuses to receive official communications from Chinese commissioners," which carried the inference that diplomatic relations between the two countries interested would be broken off. The officials are very reticent about the matter and decline to affirm or deny whether it is correctly stated. They will go only so far as to admit the receipt of a dispatch whose purport was not clearly understood, for which reason it was not given to the press for publication. Another cablegram which reached here today from Mr. Rockhill, the special commissioner of the United States, engaged in conducting the peace negotiations, made no reference to the matter.

The impression of the officials at the Russian embassy was that no special significance attached to the Squires dispatch. According to them it simply meant that the Russians had discontinued further negotiations at this time on the Manchurian question alone, which for the time is held in abeyance.

JAPAN GETTING READY. London, April 8.—The Yokohama correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing yesterday and dealing with the attitude of Japan toward Russia's Chinese policy, says: "Shipping companies have been ordered to hold their vessels in readiness for transport service. Cruisers on the reserve list have been commissioned for active service. All leaves have been recalled and officers of the first reserve have been warned for service. There is much popular excitement."

Memphis, April 8.—There is an immense crowd at the race track this afternoon for the Tennessee derby. Weather is ideal, track is fast.

THE PRESBYTERY.

MANY MINISTERS ATTENDING THE MEETING NOW IN

Progress at Mayfield—Rev. J. C. Reid, of Paducah, Preaches at One of the Mayfield Churches.

Mayfield's Presbytery, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, met in the First C. P. church, Mayfield, Ky., at 10 a. m. Saturday. The opening sermon was preached by visiting Moderator Rev. M. D. Jones, of Dexter, Ky. His theme was "The Simple Sayings of Jesus to the Simple Galileans." He very beautifully told of the Christian's duty towards the world and said that these sayings would inspire us to greater things.

The constituting prayer was led by Rev. J. D. Kirkpatrick. About sixteen churches of the Presbytery were there represented. There being from these churches a number of visitors, besides delegates-elect, there are thirteen ministers present thus far. This number will no doubt be increased before the close of the Presbytery.

Rev. J. D. Kirkpatrick was elected moderator by acclamation. Brother Kirkpatrick is one of the oldest as well as one of the strongest members of the Presbytery, having belonged to it for almost forty years, during which time he has missed but two sessions. G. O. H. Annapolis, during the war of 1861-1865, was a member of the Presbytery.

A number of were read by the dictates of the Webb, father of the pastor of the C. P. church.

THIRTY YEARS

The Famous Duchess of Devonshire Portrait Delivered in Liverpool Today.

STOLEN THIRTY YEARS AGO

Trial of Capt. Garrett Ripley Begins at Frankfort Tomorrow—Both Sides Are Ready.

Liverpool, April 8.—Mr. Agnew arrived today with the famous Duchess of Devonshire portrait, stolen 30 years ago and never recovered until a short time ago. The last time it was sold it brought over $50,000. Where it has been all this time is left to conjecture. The name of the thief and its place of concealment all these years, are not revealed by Pinkerton's detectives, who worked up the case.

The portrait was cut out of its frame, sealed in a box, and the box had never been opened. It is said the picture was stolen to be used in aiding a gang of noted forgers 30 years ago to regain their liberty, and they were released without needing it.

CAPT. RIPLEY'S TRIAL. Frankfort, April 8.—Both sides will be ready and the trial of Capt. Garrett Ripley, for alleged complicity in the Goebel murder, will begin here tomorrow.

Monticello, April 8.—Shadeup Church, a prominent farmer, went turkey hunting and was found dead two miles from home. The coroner is investigating.

The Avalon is on her way from Chattanooga here and will report tomorrow night or early next morning.

KICKS AGAINST THE BOOTBLACKS. Merchants and residents along lower Broadway complain that the bootblacks, despite the mayor's order to the police, were worse yesterday than heretofore. As soon as a policeman would leave one corner for another street they would swarm back and remain until another copper horse in sight. This was kept up all forenoon.

The City of Paducah is due today from St. Louis for Tennessee river.

PHOTOGRAPHERS MEET.

SECOND VICE PRESIDENT M'FADDEN GOES TO NASHVILLE WEDNESDAY.

Mr. G. W. McFadden, the photographer, leaves Wednesday for Nashville to arrange for the first annual meeting of Kentucky and Tennessee Photographers' association on the 16, 17 and 18.

Mr. McFadden is second vice president of the association, and has to be there a week in advance to take charge of all exhibits, arrange them, and make general preparations for the meeting.

On account of being an officer he cannot compete for the handsome prizes offered, but will have a complimentary exhibit, which needless to say will be surpassed by none. The displays will include the best work in the south.

About 400 photographers will be in attendance. The convention next year will probably be in Louisville, and the following year in Paducah.

Mr. McFadden will be absent ten days or two weeks.

CONTEST FOR MAGISTRATE JUSTICE HARTLEY SAYS HE WILL CONTEST—NO NOTICE YET FILED.

Justice H. C. Hartley, of Massac, was in the city today and stated to a Sun representative that he will today or tomorrow file notice of contest for magistrate in the Seventh district. F. F. Gholson on the face of the returns, has the nomination by three votes.

The claim of Justice Hartley is that several uncounted ballots were for him, and that the re-districting of the county a few weeks ago resulted in confusion and his defeat.

While it is probable the notice of contest will be filed with the Democratic county committee, Secretary Eaton says the question will probably be finally settled in the court.

The City of Paducah is due today from St. Louis for Tennessee river.

DAILY THOUGHT.

Let us use our past mistakes and failures as building material for future success.—Phillips Brooks.

If Cuban editors want to adopt the American journalistic method of lampooning the administration officers, they must wait until the Cuban coat is more thoroughly broken by Uncle Sam. The bulky animal has not yet consented to work in harness.

Circuit Judge Toney has decided at Louisville that sureties on policemen's bonds are liable to only the city, and not to any individual, for dereliction of duty, false arrest, or abuse of authority. This renders an officer's bond of very little benefit or protection to the public at large.

Former Congressman Pugh, who was an applicant for the federal judgeship of the Ninth district, will be appointed solicitor of internal revenue to succeed Solicitor Geo. M. Thomas, his father-in-law. Congressman Pugh is very popular in, as well as out of, his party and the judgeship to which he aspired having been selected for ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley, he will be given the position his father-in-law resigns.

Down at Metropolis the candidates for city office have a novel method of campaigning. One candidate rents a hall, has it heated and lighted, and employs a string band to furnish music. He then invites the other candidates to be present and speak, and of course the crowd votes him a jolly good fellow and a magnanimous aspirant for public favor. Nothing of the kind has yet been attempted in Paducah.

Some of the New York papers have advanced the somewhat novel idea that laws should be passed in all large cities prohibiting the insuring of hotels, opera houses, and tenement houses. They urge in support of their claims that nearly all of the hotels and other large buildings are insured for more than their worth, and are veritable fire traps. Their owners, instead of making them fire proof, as they would certainly do if they could not insure them, allow them to remain fire traps, and daily endanger hundreds of lives, many of which would undoubtedly be lost in case of fire. This agitation, however, has thus far yielded no results in the cities.

Some old fogey asks in the Visitor: "Would it be a good idea to give away an $8,000 engine, and pay $2,000 to boot for a ten-story aerial ladder in a four-story town? Citizen." No, it would not. But Paducah has no $8,000 fire engine, she is not thinking of buying a ten-story aerial ladder, and is not a "four-story" town. The fire engine proposed to be traded is not worth $500, and is virtually of no use to the city. We now have no practical, modern means of fighting fire even in a three-story building, as was clearly demonstrated a few months ago in the opera house fire. No city the size of Paducah, except Paducah, is without an aerial truck and ladder, and anything good enough for other cities is not too good for Paducah.

The suppression at Havana, Cuba, of "The Discussion," a newspaper, was brought about by a caricature having the title of "The Cuban Calvary," representing the Cuban republic personified in a Cuban soldier being crucified between two thieves, Gen. Wood being represented as one thief and President McKinley as the other, both being labeled with their names. Senator Platt was represented as a Roman soldier giving vinegar and gall in the form of the Platt amendment, while public opinion, as Mary Magdalene, was weeping at the foot of the cross. Below was the following inscription: "Destiny will hot reserve us for a glorious resurrection." The president of the Cuban constitutional convention promptly called on General Wood and assured him that the members of the convention regretted the publication very much, and that it in nowise reflected the sentiment of the people of Cuba, who hold President McKinley and General Wood in the highest respect. As suppression of either free speech or free press, however, is un-American and consequently a course that would be heartily disapproved, no matter how much the privilege might be abused, by the liberators of Cuba, the great American people, the paper will be permitted to resume, and the editor will doubtless

A SENSIBLE VIEW OF IT.

It is very gratifying to find such sound views as these, on the matter so important as the so-called "trusts," in a Democratic paper. New York Town Topics says:

"I am not of those who see in the ill-used word 'Trusts' a bugbear and menace to the people's interests and to human development and liberty. The aggregation of vast capital to work some field of industry may be, and indeed has been, a magnificent beneficence. The Standard Oil Organization has been loaded with abuse as being distinctively the most powerful, and, therefore, most to be condemned, of the so-called 'Trusts.' To the student of the practical questions which affect the well-being of the world at large have come facts that prove that of all the business aggregations of capital the Standard Oil company or 'Trust' has been the most far-reaching and beneficent in its results. It has taken the generous crude product of Nature found in limited sections of the earth's surface; made from this a thousand refined articles, discovered by scientific minds which its capital enabled it to command, and spread them to the remotest districts of all the world, thus creating a commerce employing hundreds of thousands of hands and many hundred ships. It has carried to the homes of the peasant in Europe and the farmer in America that essential of house comfort—abundant light—at a price so small as to make the tax upon the most meagre income scarcely felt. Not three decades ago a very inferior lighting fluid from petroleum cost in the United States from fifty cent to one dollar per gallon; in the remote districts its cost was even greater. Twenty-five years ago I traveled throughout Hungary, and found the 'tallow dip,' with its unsatisfactory light, generally used. Now the candle has practically disappeared from Hungary, and in its place is the cleanly, brilliant kerosene. I doubt if there is a place where a good quality of kerosene cannot be had for less than fifteen cents per gallon. This result could only have been brought about by the enormous capital concentrated in the Standard Oil Organization, enabling it to employ cheapened means of transport by pipe lines, tank cars, tank ships, etc., and to install the latest inventions in processes and mechanical appliances for treating the crude product. It could pay for the study by scientific men of the possibilities of useful by-products of crude petroleum. It could establish everywhere depots of supplies involving an investment greater than the capital of a half dozen of the strongest banks. The extraordinary cheapening of lighting fluid has been brought about, not by wreck, ruin and losses often the cause of temporary cheap prices—but while producing large returns to the capital employed in the industry. The world at large has profited by this, and hence no one should begrudge the profits that the projectors, the capitalists, the executive managers have realized."

"Among other benefits America has derived from this 'Trust' has been also a greater development of the merchant marine than millions spent in direct subsidies could have accomplished."

"Now comes the United States Steel corporation, another 'Trust' with possibilities—if managed with broad and just views as to the relations between capital, brains, and labor—of effecting even more for the general good than has been possible to the Standard Oil company. It can give a renewed impetus, ten fold greater than any heretofore brought to bear, toward American industrial supremacy in the trade and commerce of the world. It can do more for the increase of the American merchant marine than could have been accomplished by the proposed ship subsidy bill. It can afford abundant capital and consequent advantages in conducting business, saving of heavy discounts, employment of most approved plants, machinery, etc.—more regular machinery and more liberal wages than have been possible in the steel industry and its co-ordinate or subsidiary branches under the weaker independent and competing organizations. It can, and I believe it will, do all these things, because men with brains big enough to originate and bring about this unprecedented operation must be broadminded, liberal and considerate enough to direct, curb, control and manage the leviathan in its own true interests, which will be found to be equally the true interest of the laboring or consuming public."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

ITINERARY OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE IN HIS TRANS.

Continental Trip Being Arranged—He Will Travel 12,000 Miles and Pass Through Half the States of the Union.

Washington, April 8.—Secretary Cortelyou is daily engaged in conferences with senators and representative railroad officials regarding the itinerary of the president's coming four across the continent. As near as possible, Secretary Cortelyou is trying to complete the schedule before the train leaves on its long journey. The time of returning to Washington will be fixed almost to the hour before the departure, despite the fact that the train will be away from Washington for six weeks, and will travel 12,000 miles and go through more than half the states of the union. Reports received at the white house are that the entire west is making preparations for the trip.

H. T. Scott, of the Union Iron works, of San Francisco, where the battleship Ohio will be launched, is coming to Washington to accompany the president to California. He also has placed his magnificent residence in San Francisco at the disposal of the president. In Los Angeles, two prominent citizens have tendered the use of their houses. While these invitations may not be accepted, they show the hospitality that is being offered to the president.

It is not yet known whether Attorney General Knox will accompany the party. He has just come back from spending the winter in California, and may not care to return. With the exception of Secretary Gage and possibly Secretary Root, every other cabinet officer will go. Each one will transact department business aboard the train just as if he were at his desk in Washington. The president will be in constant communication with Washington, and will attend to all the executive business.

While in the state of Washington the president has decided to stop at Chehalis, the home of the Hazard brothers, the two army officers who accompanied Gen. Funston upon the journey which ended in the capture of Aguinaldo. The president probably will make a brief speech there.

The proposed sail by steamer from Duluth or Chicago to Buffalo has been eliminated from the itinerary, owing to the fact that the steamers do not begin to run until June 15. After the trip through Yellowstone Park, the party will go to Salt Lake City, thence to Denver and Colorado Springs. Two days will be spent at the latter place in order to allow time for a visit to Pike's Peak. Stops will be made at Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo. No extended stay will be made in Chicago. About two days will be spent at Buffalo, and Niagara Falls will be visited.

KENTUCKY COAL CAUSES TROUBLE.

Evansville, Ind., April 8.—The operators in the Southern Indiana coal field threaten to close their mines unless the United Mine Workers of America bring the Southwestern Kentucky coal field into the union. The operators say that non-union coal from Kentucky is being sold here and the competition is unjust and must be remedied by the coal miners.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS invested last year by a young man in California oil stock made a profit of over $30,000 to the fortunate investor. Others are making fortunes daily. WHY NOT YOU?

Los Angeles Oil and Refining Company

capital stock only 350,000 shares, par value $1 per share, offers 25,000 shares of treasury stock at the low price of 25 cents per share. This is ground floor price.

This company has nearly 400 acres of oil lands in the heart of the celebrated Los Angeles oil fields. Every well put down will undoubtedly be a producer. Work has already begun and within sixty days we will be producing oil.

An investment of $25 in stock of the LOS ANGELES OIL AND REFINING COMPANY will surely double when our first well is completed, and may be worth several hundred dollars.

Our next block of 25,000 shares will be offered at 50 cents per share.

Two brutes lay together under a tree in Franklin Park. It was midnight. The moon, at full, shone full on the face of the greater brute; blotted as it was, and disfigured by a recent blow from some heavy-browed man. Half asleep, he drooled at the mouth like a baby, and murmured, now and then, half-conscious words of booby affection to the lesser brute crouching beside him, wide-eyed and watchful, lest evil come to his evil master.

He was white, spotted, lean with hunger, scarred all over and lacking an ear, thus all the toes on one foot and given to limping—this lesser brute. His tail was a forgotten memory; not enough was left of it to wag. He was somewhat ferocious at times, in matters which concerned his Master. He had nothing to be thankful for, or grateful to, in that Master, but he had been born in his house, had owed to him shelter. His mother had been a shepherd, his father a blooded bulldog—a trained fighter; whereby had come to him a tenacity of purpose, a faithfulness to duty, a courage and a devotion which the greater brutes of the world might well emulate.

The other brute was not the only booby abroad. Three ill-smelling swaggers came through the park, pursuing a woman who fled before them and took refuge in the shadow of the tree under which the two brutes lay. The dog sprang to his feet with a growl which quickly became a bark of delight. He evidently knew the woman, who fled away from the "ad-vo" with even greater haste than had shown in coming to it. The dog started to follow, the master woke, sat up and swore at him, while he paced to and fro between the tree and the squat umbrella-bush under which the woman was hiding. The three swaggers swaggered down the path, kicking at the dog, mauling the man, who cried "Police!" while the dog flew at the throat of one of them, and would have killed him if a pair of watchmen had not come to the rescue. Blow after blow fell on him; he only clenched his teeth the tighter. Then the greater brute slowly coming to an understanding, called the dog authoritatively, who dropped off, dizzy, half dead from his beating, and left licking the hands of the man he had tried to protect.

"The dog is mad!" said one of the brutes; "we chased him in here. 'Kill him! Kill him!'" the other laughed and confirmed the lie. "Yes; we know the dog; he's mad! Kill him!"

And the watchman said to the man who was now fondling the dog: "Drive him away from you! We're going to shut him!"

"Dogg! all right! thute me intstead! Dogg! hith duty; takin' care o' me, ith hith religion! Thute me and leth the dog go home to hith break-fast."

"Drive that dog off, I tell you! I'm not home!"

The City of Paducah is due today from St. Louis for Tennessee river.

The Hudson, from Memphis, passed up for Cincinnati today with good business.

The H. W. Buttorff arrived from Nashville this morning with a good trip of freight and people. She left for Clarksville early this afternoon.

The Clyde is due from Tennessee river tonight.

The City of Clifton was loaded flat for St. Louis. She arrived here yesterday afternoon. After coaling and taking a few stores she departed for the "Future Great."

The river commenced falling here last Saturday evening and at 6 p. m. yesterday the gauge marked 29 feet and three tenths, falling slowly.

The Joe Fowler departed for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock. She was liberally patronized.

under a bush, nothing but draperies tightly fastened to betray her to these brutes. Once she coughed convulsively, and when she took her hand away from her mouth it was bloody.

"Go home to breakfast! Go home to breakfast!" Even she had heard and was repeating it.

"Yes, poor brute! We will go home once more, once more, together!" and she crept away by the same path, trembling now and then in the dog's honest blood.

The human brute came before the court next morning. Sobered and repentant, as was his wont, and was discharged as usual, with a reprimand. What had really happened? The watchmen said the dog was mad; they had shot and killed him.

Why go home? No one was there to meet him! All these five years the dog—yes, the dog had been faithful. The other o—why go home? Habit. That was all. At the gate he rested and whistled, by habit. Echoes of the whistle came from an empty house, whose door stood wide. No fire on the hearth, no breakfast. Then he remembered his own last words to his only friend, whom he had kicked and driven away to be shot. He sat down on the bench beside his dog, with a groan. A white spot on his forehead, having the semblance of a dog, crawled from under the bench and laid its shapely nose on his knee. He took the dumb brute in his arms and went into the house and sat down.

The creature was sightless, his head almost buried to a jelly. He had three bullet wounds, one in his neck, one in his side, one in his back. But he had obeyed orders to the last; he had come home to breakfast!

"Good dog! Yeth he ith! My good, good dog!" The tears were raining down the bloated cheeks. A new power had come near to these two friends. Death was with them, waiting; a strange exaltation, a new perception of heretofore vague truths, a new dawning of light had come to the master, even a new power to resolve and to hold firm. When death opens the door into the unknown, the life here suddenly means on a new meaning. The big brute holding the lesser so tenderly suddenly remembered how his mother had died, holding him, her last-born in her arms, her lips on his golden hair.

Then another picture floated up. His own life—better if she had died. Five years ago she had left him, tired of poverty and beatings. Only the dog had been faithful to him through all the good dog now dying in his arms, the dog's life so much worthier than his own. Never had he seen himself as he was, before, not in all his forty years.

Lower sank the head of the man to the head of the dog and only God knows what soul-speech was had between them; and while they so sat together a change ineffable came to both. The dog died into we know not what, brutally murdered, crucified for love's sake though he was; while the man died out of his old life and was born anew to a man's rightful dignity, self control, energy of will. The love of the brute had saved him; many a human love has done less.

There was a rustle behind him, unusual in that solitude, the rustle of a woman's gown.

"Pete! O Pete, don't strike me! Let me come back, let me come home again, as the dog came! Won't you forgive me, won't you let me have the dog's place, just for a little while, it can't be long! Look at me. I was in the park last night; the men were chasing me; I ran, I did not know you and he were under the tree. The

POST OFFICE RECEIPTS.

PADUCAH WILL SOON BE PLACED WITH THE FIRST-CLASS OFFICES.
The report of postoffice receipts in Paducah for the year ending March 31st show an increase of only a few hundred dollars over last year's receipts.

Last year the increase over the year before was $11,000.

Paducah can get her postoffice into the first-class, with New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and other big cities if the citizens choose. The year has just begun, and all post-offices that show receipts of over $40,000 for the year are placed in the first-class.

There are now only three first-class offices in the state, Louisville, Cincinnati and Lexington.

Every little helps, and by increasing the receipts a few thousand dollars over last year, between now and next March 31st, this office will go into the first class.

The only advantages in having a first-class office are in enhancing the city's importance, and of a more liberal carrier service.

The receipts for the year just closed were $36,104.16. Last year they were $35,341.86, and the year before $24,400.

Cards giving the hours for collection of mail from the boxes are being posted on the mail boxes. The work was commenced this morning and will probably be completed by tomorrow. This will be very beneficial to the public as mail is often delayed by persons dropping letters into the boxes after the last collection has been made.

PAUPERISM

The dread of the thrifty, the bane of any nation, is so easily prevented that there is small excuse for even the day laborer at small wages to ever reach the almshouse. For the well-to-do merchant or the man on a fair salary, it's a crime when life insurance is so cheap and the best companies offer so many good plans. Investment is a feature for the bachelor. See us about it.

SKULL FRACTURED.

COWARDLY ASSAULT ON LUM SAMS BY POMP EDMUNDS YESTERDAY.

Lum Sams, a well known teamster, had considered an inoffensive negro was seriously if not fatally assaulted at Ninth and Trimble streets late yesterday afternoon by Pomp Edmunds, a colored desperado well known in police circles.

According to the statements of eye witnesses, some woman had Edmunds down soundly beating him when Sams interfered and pulled her off.

As soon as Edmunds got up he seized a brick and struck Sams in the head, nearly killing him. Dr. Sights, when he made an examination, found that the skull had been fractured, but the injury will probably not prove fatal.

Edmunds has not been arrested.

FURNACE PROPERTY.

QUITE A SUM REALIZED FROM THE SALE THIS MORNING.

Assignee R. G. Caldwell sold 656 tons of pig iron at the iron furnace plant on South Third street this morning at 10 o'clock in accordance with a ruling of Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Bagby. The iron belonged to the defunct Kentucky Furnace company, which went under last fall after running the furnace for a few months.

There were a dozen or more bidders, among them a local bidder or two, but the iron was bought by J. Joseph & Co., of Aurora, Ill., for $7,241.

The other property, consisting of office furniture and odds and ends about the plant, brought about $1,000 additional.

There are about 800 tons tied up by the banks, the disposition of which is to be decided by the state court.

CAUGHT A TARTAR.

MAYFIELD TOUGHS GOT HOLD OF A PADUCAH TOUGH, WITH DISASTROUS RESULTS.

Every Sunday morning several members of the tough element of Mayfield come to Paducah to imbibe the "red eye" and have a jolly good time. They arrived yesterday, "tanked" up and hid themselves to the red light district to raise h—l, as they put it. One of the toughest staggered against a negro woman and then swore at her for not getting out of his way. She batted him one in the "peepers" and then catching him by the hair, which he had a goodly supply of, proceeded to drag him all over the street. When she got through with her "patience" the victim looked like he had been run over by a street scraper. His clothes were torn nearly off his body and he was bruised and bleeding all over. The police could not catch them as they hurried away immediately after the difficulty.

THE TIMES "TATTLER" BECOMES A PASSENGER AGENT AT

Louisville—A Man Whom It Took Eight Years to Secure On a Passenger Train.

A small wreck occurred on the Illinois Central railroad at Pryors Saturday night. A freight car got stuck on a hill near that place and the passenger train attempted to push it on over but a coupling broke and the train parted. Several cars were derailed and some little delay was occasioned by the accident. Nobody was injured. The cars were slightly damaged.

Master Mechanic Barton and family will return from Chicago today. They have been there on a brief visit.

Miss Elvira Sydnor Miller, The Times "Tattler," enjoys the distinction of being the only female passenger agent of a railroad. She was Saturday appointed to the position by General Passenger Agent Irwin, of the Louisville, Henderson and St. Louis railroad. The appointment is not an empty honor, but a business venture, Miss Miller to present the merits of the road to lady travelers. Her territory will be Louisville, and the duties will not interfere with her literary work, which is so thoroughly appreciated by Kentuckians.

One of the most unusual ticket stories on record is told by Conductor Felix Wright, who runs into Fulton on the Illinois Central. He collected a ticket from Clinton to Fulton, sold December 21, 1892, a few days ago on his train. The old man who presented it for passage said he bought it about eight years ago but heard there was a wreck on the road, and was afraid to get on the train. He never summoned up courage enough to ride on a railroad until last Wednesday.

"Sug" Clark, a local switchman in the employ of the Illinois Central railroad at Fort Jefferson, near Bardwell, Ky., shot and fatally wounded Buster Glass, a notorious negro, at that place Saturday. Glass was attempting to throw a switch when the switchman appeared and demanded that the negro leave the switch alone. Glass struck at Clark with an iron bolt whereupon the latter drew a revolver and shot the negro in the neck.
